Curious about 3D Printing?

Saturday, January 10, 2015, 2:00 PM

Join us for a presentation that will get you started in the fun world of 3D printing. We'll go through the whole process from concept and design to printing. See a 3D printer in action! This program is for all ages and will last about 2 hours.

Free Math Classes for Adults

Brush up on your math skills with instructor, Vanessa Mason. Vanessa has a passion for teaching math to adults. She teaches on the first Tuesday of every month, from 12:30 to 2:30 PM in the Library Program Room. Each month focuses on a different subject, from pre-algebra to fractions and geometry. If you've ever wanted to brush up on your math skills, Vanessa can help you!

Free Homework Help

Homework Help is a free, drop-in program for children in grades 3 to 8. Students are encouraged to complete their assignments on their own, but teen volunteers are available to help when they need it. The program is supervised by an Adult Homework Help Coordinator and operates daily, Monday through Thursday from 3:30 to 5:30 PM. The winter session for Homework Help begins on January 5.

Stories for You and Me

Story times play an important role in helping children get ready to learn how to read. They reinforce print and sound awareness, letter recognition and, most importantly, create an association that reading is fun. The Librarian is delighted to share the benefits of age-appropriate books, stories, songs and finger-plays with your child. Check the Library's calendar at www.aclibrary.org for the winter and spring schedule.

My Family Reads: A Family Book Event for Children's Book Week in May

Snacks, crafts, stories and games will celebrate the delightful Elephant & Piggie books by Mo Willems. This program is for children ages 7 to 11 and their families. Space is limited to 30 families. Watch the Library's website at www.aclibrary.org for times and dates.
